SPORT INTEGRITY POLICY
OF
United States Rowing Association, Inc.

1. Purpose

Integrity is fundamental to the credibility, fairness, and sustainability of sport. USRowing is committed to upholding the principles of honesty, ethical conduct, and fair competition, ensuring that all participants engage in sport in a manner that maintains public confidence and respect that is free from improper outside influences like those mentioned in this paragraph below, and consistent with the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions, IOC Code of Ethics, and where applicable, the IPC Code of Ethics, as well as Article 55 and Appendix S12 Bye-laws to Article 55 of the World Rowing Statutes. This policy recognizes the increasing risks to sporting integrity, including corruption, match-fixing, misuse of insider information, and other inappropriate involvement in sports betting. Such behaviors threaten the core values of sport and undermine the safety, welfare, and reputation of athletes, officials, organizations, and competitions.

This policy provides a framework for identifying, mitigating, and responding to integrity threats; outlines USRowing's expectations, responsibilities, and prohibited conduct for all participants; and supports education, monitoring, and enforcement measures to protect the sport from improper influence. This policy does not attempt to provide an exhaustive list of every possible circumstance in which an integrity threat may occur. Instead, by promoting awareness, accountability, and transparency, this policy aims to safeguard fair competition free from improper outside influences, protect participants from harm, and preserve the trust of fans, stakeholders, and the broader sporting community.

2. Applicability of Policy

This Sport Integrity Policy is applicable to all USRowing Covered Individuals. Where reasonable and relevant, USRowing contractors will be required to comply with this policy in their contracts.

All Covered Individuals who participate in an Applicable Competition are required to comply with the integrity standards outlined in the policy. Integrity obligations commence from the time a participant is selected, accredited, or otherwise becomes eligible to participate in an Applicable Competition and shall continue until all competition-related obligations, including post-event processes, have concluded.

E. Duty to Report and Cooperate

All Covered Individuals have a continuing obligation to promptly report to USRowing and/or the USOPC any conduct, incident, approach, invitation, or information the individual knows, suspects, or reasonably should suspect, may constitute a violation of this Sport Integrity Policy or any related integrity rules (e.g., World Rowing Code of Ethics, the IOC/IPC Code of Ethics). Failure to report such violations may be considered a violation of the policy and may result in disciplinary action or related sanctions.

All Covered Individuals have a duty to cooperate with USRowing and/or the USOPC, or their delegees in any investigation, in investigating violations of USRowing's Sport Integrity Policy and the USOPC Sport Integrity Policy. Cooperation may include sitting for interviews within a reasonable amount of time and providing documentation. Note that the failure to cooperate with any investigation may be considered a violation of the policy and subject the individual to sanctions.

5. Procedures for Reporting, Reviewing, and Managing Reported Integrity Concerns

Integrity concerns must be reported to USRowing's Integrity Officer (UIO) (safeguarding@usrowing.org) as soon as possible and within 72 hours of obtaining knowledge of a potential violation electronically via USRowing's secure complaint portal as part of USRowing's Grievance Procedures. Upon receipt, the UIO will notify the Chair of the USRowing Board's Governance Ethics & Nominating Committee or designated party responsible for reviewing ethics concerns for review.

USRowing will follow the USRowing Grievance Procedures to review the concern or complaint. Anyone reporting a perceived violation of this policy must be acting in good faith and have some basis for believing there may be a violation. Anyone who makes a false report knowing that it is false or that has no basis is in violation of this policy and USRowing's Code of Conduct. Such a violation may itself be reported under this policy and may lead to serious consequences.

USRowing has a zero tolerance for retaliation against individuals who make good faith reports of potential ethical, policy, or legal violations, and who cooperate with investigations of the report. Consult USRowing's Whistleblower Policy for more details.

Individuals may also report integrity concerns to the USOPC Integrity Portal and/or the IOC/IPC Integrity Hotlines (see Section 8 below). Upon receipt of any reported integrity concern involving Protected Competitions (as defined by the USOPC Bylaws), USRowing's UIO or compliance contact will immediately notify the USOPC Chief Ethics & Compliance Officer of the potential violation(s). USRowing is committed to assisting the IOC/IPC, World Rowing, and the USOPC in ensuring integrity in sport. Where the IOC/IPC, World Rowing, or the USOPC assert jurisdiction over an integrity review or investigation, USRowing and all USRowing Covered Individuals will fully cooperate with the review. USRowing will recognize and enforce integrity-related sanctions issued by the IOC/IPC, World Rowing, and/or the USOPC.

In cases adjudicated by USRowing, USRowing will take into consideration the severity of the allegations when determining resolution to determined violations.

6. Education and Training

The sports integrity landscape is ever evolving. To assist in promoting a culture of integrity, transparency, accountability, and respect for fair competition, USRowing will provide Covered Individuals, on an annual basis, materials designed to support education and awareness of key sport integrity issues, including, but not limited to: competition manipulation, sports betting, misuse of insider information, reporting obligations, and ethical decision-making. By building knowledge and practical understanding, the materials aim to equip athletes, coaches, officials, administrators, and support personnel with the tools to recognize integrity risks and to appropriately respond.

7. USRowing Resources
